

C h a m b e r
of Court Appointed
Interpreters and Translators of the Czech Republic

Professional association of court interpreters (translators)

Introduction

- A voluntary organization associating court interpreters (translators) appointed in accordance with Act No. 36/1967 Sb., as amended
- The task is to pursue and defend professional, legal and social interests of its members
- Improving qualification, as well as awareness not only of its members, by sharing experience, knowledge, and organising seminars, workshops, meetings and trainings

Guarantor of professional capacity

- We organise courses for applicants for appointment – those who seek to become court interpreters / translators

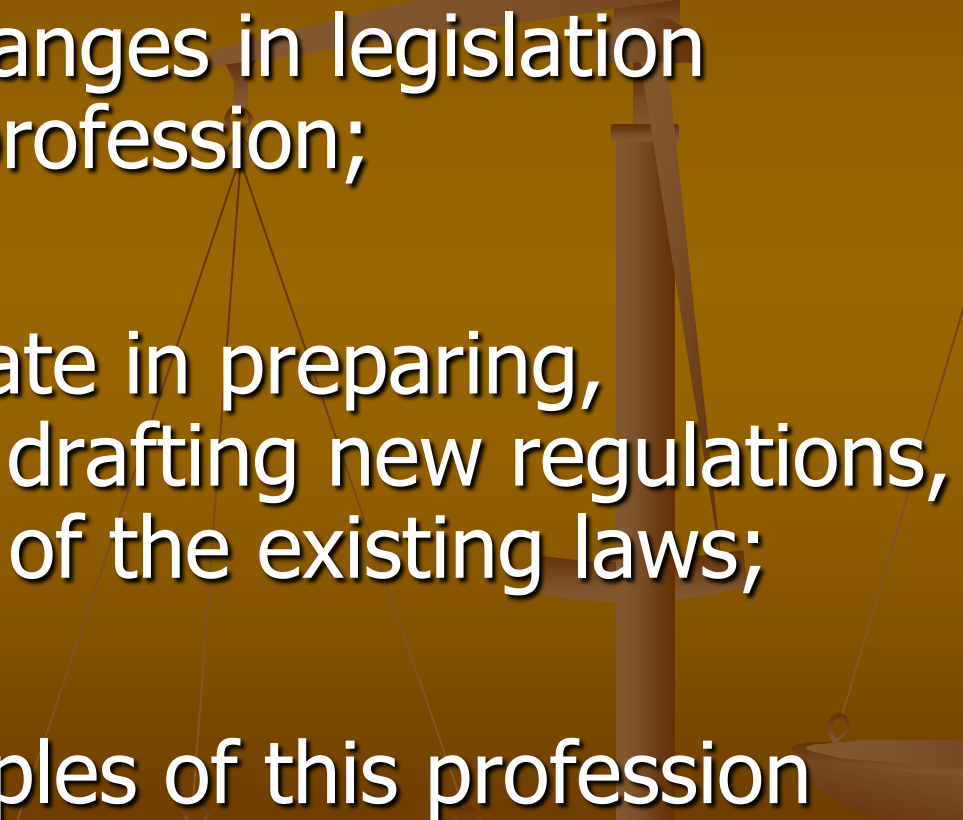

Lifelong learning

- Professional development
- Continuing education

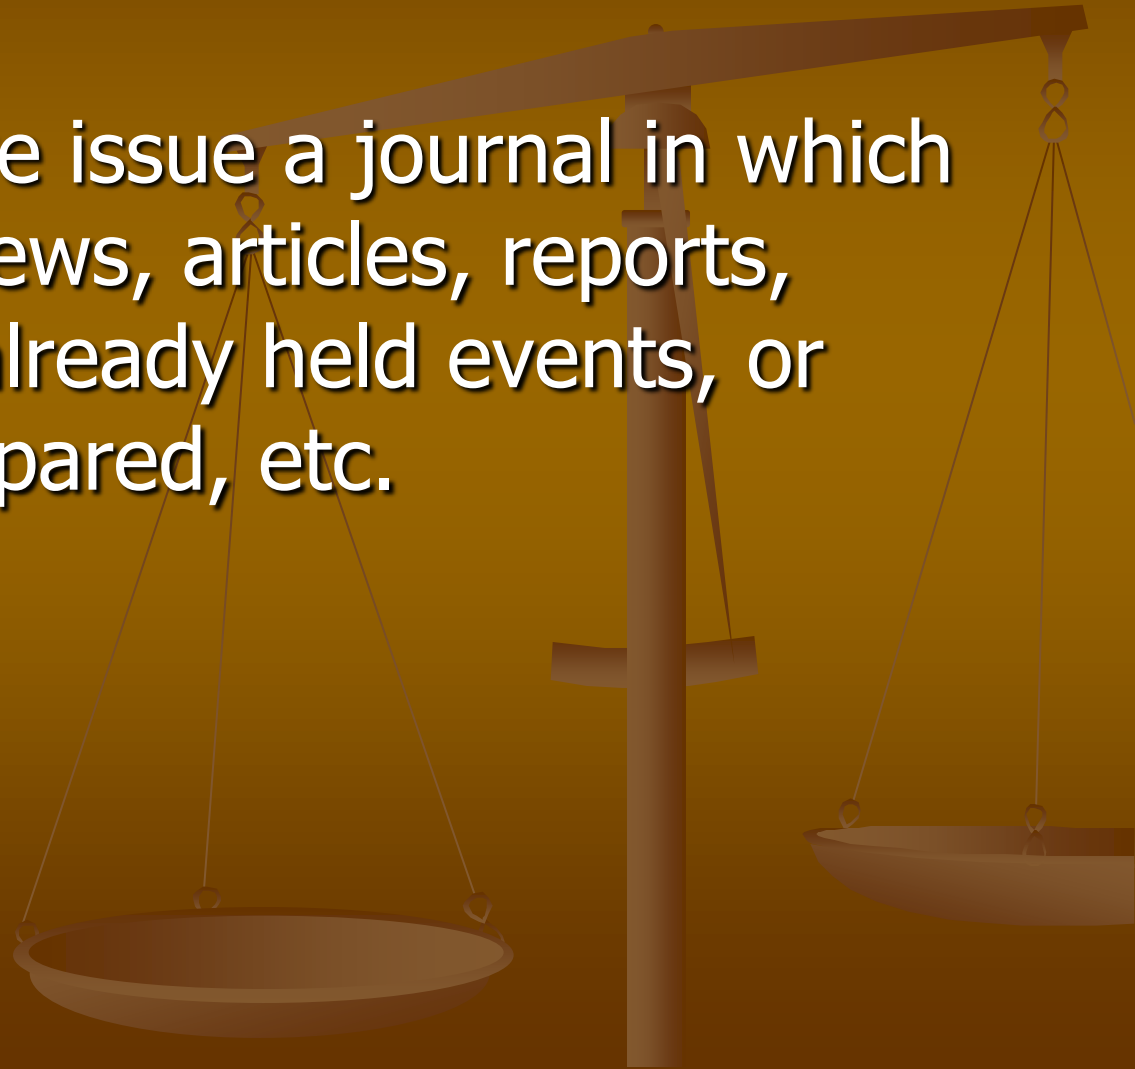

Informing its members

- especially on changes in legislation relating to our profession;
 - we also participate in preparing, negotiating and drafting new regulations, or amendments of the existing laws;
 - on ethical principles of this profession
-

Bulletin Soudní tlumočník „Court Interpreter“

- Twice a year, we issue a journal in which are published news, articles, reports, information of already held events, or those being prepared, etc.

Cooperation with authorities

- Ministries, in particular the Ministry of Justice, and the Ministry of the Interior
- Union of Interpreters and Translators
- Associations of forensic experts
- Universities, in particular Law Faculty of the Charles University, and Institute of Translatology
- Judicial Academy

Other activities

We take part in various events, or participate in organising such events or projects, e.g.:

- Hieronymus Days
- Vocabulary of the Year
- E-justice
- Expolingua

Web

- www.kstcr.cz
- Email: kstcr@kstcr.cz
- Our members chat via discussion group where they share problems, discuss terminology, etc.

Thank you for your attention

